

Euromonitor
International

Consumer Lifestyles in the United Arab Emirates

June 2025

Table of Contents

Scope

CONSUMER LANDSCAPE

Consumer landscape in the United Arab Emirates 2025

PERSONAL TRAITS AND VALUES

Personal traits and values

Respondents feel concerned that the cost of everyday items is going up

Time for myself: Most prioritised by baby boomers

Consumers feel comfortable in expressing their identity among loved ones

Consumers enjoy testing out new products and offerings

Gen Z expect more activities will shift online in future

Personal traits and values survey highlights

HOME LIFE AND LEISURE TIME

Home life and leisure time

All generations enjoy connecting with loved ones as frequent home activity

Consumers like engaging in personal interactions with friends

Smart home functionality: Home feature most desired by baby boomers

Safe location: External feature most desired by Gen X

Consumers in the United Arab Emirates desire to unwind when travelling

Home life and leisure time survey highlights

EATING AND DIETARY HABITS

Eating and dietary habits

Younger generations actively keeping track of their calorie intake

Younger generations more likely to claim they do not have time for cooking

Millennials typically eat snacks while at work

Baby boomers seek to reduce meat consumption

Emiratis are ready to pay more for products with health and nutritional properties

Eating and dietary habits survey highlights

WORKING LIFE

Working life

Baby boomers desire to team up with like-minded individuals

Consumers desire to find employment that provides time for both personal and work life

Older generations prioritise job security

Consumers in the United Arab Emirates expect to start their own company

Working life survey highlights

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

Health and wellness

Emiratis participate in walking or hiking

Spa visit remains the more popular stress-reduction activity among younger generations

Respondents think health and nutritional properties is the most influential product feature

Younger generations more likely to own fitness wearables

Health and wellness survey highlights

SHOPPING AND SPENDING

Shopping and spending

Emiratis have a fondness for great bargains

Younger generations regularly buy themselves small treats

Gen X seek products with easy-to-understand labels

Millennials are interested in acquiring items that have been previously owned
Consumers in the United Arab Emirates often donate used items to a charity or non-profit
Younger generations often follow or like companies' social media feed or posts
Millennials read consumer reviews online
Emiratis set to increase spending on education the most Baby boomers are most concerned about their current financial affairs
Shopping and spending survey highlights

About Euromonitor International

Euromonitor International is an independent market intelligence provider. Data, insight and analysis stem from in-the-field research spanning 210 national markets.

Content ranges from the in-depth and country-specific, to key strategic themes with a global range and significance. Products cover a comprehensive range of insights and market data, but can be broadly categorised as:

- Strategy Briefings: Global or regional in scope, and focussing on the most important themes shaping consumer demand, the key markets, competitive environment and future outlook across a range of industries.
- Company Profiles: Analysis dedicated to the world's most significant companies, with detailed insight into their activities, focus of operations, their competitors, their geographic presence and performance.
- Country Reports: For an in-depth understanding of specific countries, whether by industry, economic metrics or consumer trends and lifestyles. These reports cover current trends, consumer demand, market potential and future prospects, with country-specific local insight and comprehensive data, unavailable elsewhere.

For more information on this report, further enquiries can be directed via this link www.euromonitor.com/consumer-lifestyles-in-the-united-arab-emirates/report.